

Rare Breed Pork for Christmas

Rare and Native Breeds
Produce and Conservation

We will be at the Christmas Market in Arbroath on the 22nd December, and we are taking orders for our Christmas produce for collection at the market. We will be producing to order, so please only place an order if you are prepared to commit to purchase and pick up. All will be subject to availability but we will let you know that when we confirm your order.

We will have very limited stock at the market for sale, so please do pre-order. Our order book will close on Friday 8th November, which we know is early but we are producing to order.

Thanks for your support! Jackie & Martin
